

West Winds Development Association

Since September, LGNI have been working alongside Belfast Exposed on a photography project with residents of the West Winds estate in Newtownards. West Winds Development Association asked LGNI to get involved to help them deliver the project which worked with West Winds Women's Group, the Primary School and The Shack youth club. Participants and partners got together in June to view the final exhibition, which was displayed in Ards Arts Centre.

